BRACE YOURSELF

FINAL EXAM IS COMING!

The Final Exam

- When: Tuesday morning on the 7th of May 2019

- Duration: Two hours

- Lab Based Exam (location shared with students by School)

- Types of questions:

    - Multiple Choice

    - Short Answers

    - Written Answers

The Final Exam (examples of Questions)

- Multiple Choice Question:

In REST Services, Stateless means that every HTTP request

○	have a fixed state
○	happens in a complete isolation.
○	connected to other requests
○	can not have a certain state

The Final Exam (examples of Questions)

- Short Answer:

Microservices are services that are loosely coupled, (blank A), act in isolation, (blank B) by owning their state and behaviour.

Write down the word(s) that could fill in blank A and blank B.

The Final Exam (examples of Questions)

- Written Answer:

Question: Explain the addressability property of the ROA architecture.

The Final Exam (examples of Questions)

- Be aware of figures

?a		?b

a: is X

b: is Y

Supplementary Exam Policy

- Supp Exam is only available to students who:
    - DID NOT attend the final exam
    - Have a good excuse for not attending
    - Have documentation for the excuse

- Submit special consideration within 72 hours (via myUNSW with supporting docs)

- Everybody gets exactly one chance to pass the final exam. For CSE supplementary assessment policy, follow the link in the course outline.

Warning… Warning

Huge Thanks Coming Your Way...